Description

For sale a spacious modern three bedroom apartment located in the centre of Paphos, close to all amenities and just minutes from the sea.

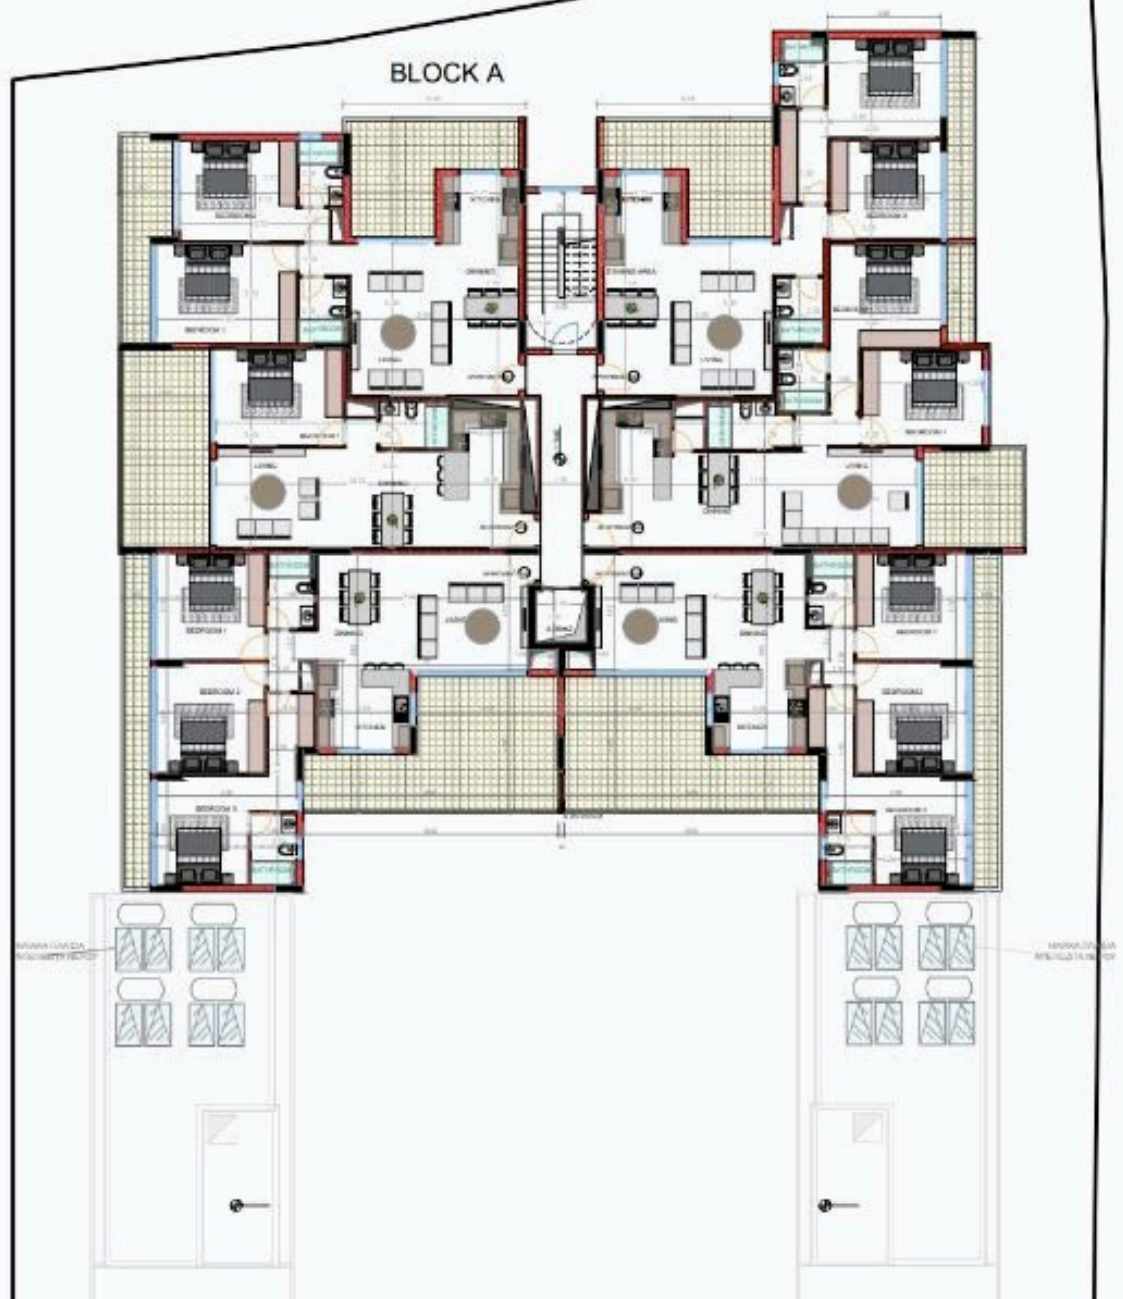

Paphos, the acclaimed crown jewel of Cyprus, is a picturesque coastal city rich in history and a vibrant culture that also provides easy access to a wealth of modern amenities.

Because it is an advanced, high-income economy, a member of the EU & eurozone, with a very high health standard and a very low crime rate, a country of impeccable natural beauty and rich culture is considered the ideal choice for investment and business opportunities.

It is also an excellent choice for ex-pats because English is widely spoken and the country is well-known for its high-level educational system.

As a result, it's no surprise that the city is gaining global popularity among travellers and discerning buyers seeking a home or a unique investment opportunity on the beautiful island that offers an enviable lifestyle and many business opportunities.
